Business owner to drive to Poland with truckload of items donated by locals for Ukrainian refugees

Report by Henry James

A BUSINESS owner from Scarisbrick is to drive to Poland to take a truck load of items donated by locals to refugees from Ukraine.

Rob Edwards, who owns small crane company Edwards Lifting Services, was so horrified by the appalling difficulties faced by those fleeing Ukraine following the Russian invasion, he decided he wanted to help.

He is hoping to set off tomorrow (Thursday) and drive the truck to an aid centre near to the Polish town of Zamosc.

So far they have collected more than half a tonne of supplies and 250 kgs of bottled water. The total when they depart will be around 3.5 tonnes.

Rob said: "Like most of the world my wife, Gemma and I have been horrified by the war in Ukraine.

"Watching people flee their homes with suitcases, or whatever they can carry and losing absolutely everything else is truly heartbreaking. So we've decided to stop feeling helpless and to act, we are loading up our company flatbed and trailer, with as many supplies as we can get our hands on."

Gemma added: "I keep thinking how I would feel to not be able to feed or keep my children warm and that for me was too much to comprehend."

Rob said: "We are asking for donations of nappies/toiletries/dry foods etc to keep filling the boxes that have been kindly donated by Andrew Porter Removals."

So far they have collected more than £6,000 from the JustGiving page that Gemma set up.

Donations will be passed to The Disaster's Emergency Committee (DEC) Ukraine Humanitarian Appeal and UNICEF.

There are drop-off points for donations at Booths at Burscough, Aldi at Burscough and the Tap and Bottle bar on Cambridge Walks, Southport.

Rob added: "Master McGraths at Scarisbrick have raised more than £2,000 in food donations, fuel for the trip and cuddly toys to hand out to Ukrainian children.

"The Tap & Bottles in Southport have donated some of their takings over the weekend.

"Aldi, Booths and Tesco's have all set up collection trolleys in the front of the stores for us that we have been collecting,

Pauline Mckittrick

Inspirational founder of well-known fancy dress business dies at age of 89

Report by Henry James

A WELL-KNOWN businesswoman who founded a fancy dress firm in Ormskirk has died at the age of 89.

Pauline Mckittrick, who owned the Aladdin's Cave Costume Hire business, was known throughout the region for her inspirational work ethic and attention to detail.

She started her working life in Nanette's in Bold Street, Liverpool where she made numerous wedding dresses, and reputedly enabled the store to be the first in the city to have a copy of Princess Margaret's own dress – the day after the Royal wedding.

Pauline began her fancy dress business working out of her own front room in a quiet cul-de-sac in Highfield Road, Ormskirk.

But prompted by many visitors including Liverpool football players, she quickly expanded into her first premises off Church Street.

She had a remarkable ability to see any outfit and cut and sew without pattern making. This skill enabled her to keep rapidly ahead of emerging trends such as the many pop and film stars of the 70s and 80s.

Pauline moved premises three times, continuing to expand her stock, and supply local businesses for charity events and fund raising, many amateur dramatic groups and the hundreds of individuals and businesses who required outfits for themed parties.

Her daughter, Colette Giblin, said: "It's appropriate given the proximity to International Women's day that we acknowledge the part that inspirational female entrepreneurs like Pauline and the creation of Aladdin's Cave played in the change of perceptions of women in business and society."

Her funeral will be on Friday, March 18 at midday at St Anne's Church in Ormskirk.

Go-ahead for plan to build 200 homes

Report by Henry James

PLANS to build 200 homes at Neverstitch Road, in Skelmersdale, have been recommended for approval by officers at West Lancashire Borough Council, despite objections from residents.

The homes will include the following mix of one and two bedroom apartments; two and three bedroom houses and two five-bedroom properties.

All the apartments and two-bedroom houses will be affordable, which equates to 15% of the homes being built.

The proposals will be heard at a meeting tomorrow (Thursday).

The site is the second phase of the housebuilder, Bellway Homes' Lathom Pastures development and the final phase of the wider 'Land at Firwood Road' housing allocation as designated in the adopted Local Plan.

The council has said they have received a number of letters of objection from residents. Locals were concerned about: loss of privacy; increased noise and disturbance; increased traffic pollution; and loss of daylight.

They were also concerned about the loss of wildlife, such as great crested newts, bats, birds of prey, heron, and many other bird and mammal species.

Residents stated they believed care needed to be taken that current issues of flooding along Old Engine Lane are not made worse.

Phase one of Lathom Pastures which is now under construction

However, Heidi McDougall, the corporate director of place and community at West Lancashire Borough Council has written that the principle of residential development on the site is "acceptable."

She stated in planning documents for the meeting: "In terms of affordable housing, I am satisfied that an appropriate number of affordable homes will be provided on the site."

"The proposed development is acceptable in terms of layout, appearance and scale."

"I am satisfied that the proposed development would allow for the provision and retention of reasonable levels of amenity for the occupants of future and neighbouring properties."

Bollards to be installed to stop 'inconsiderate' motorists parking on damaged grass verges

Report by Henry James

LANCASHIRE County Council will be installing wooden bollards along Ruff Lane, in Ormskirk, to prevent inconsiderate parking which has damaged the grass verges.

Residents of Ruff Lane and the surrounding area have consistently asked for the council to take action on cars parked in restricted areas on the narrow road, damaging the grass.

After West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper raised these concerns with the county council, they have confirmed that they will be completing extensive bollard installation along the road by the end of this month.

Rosie Cooper MP said: "This will be welcome news for the residents of Ruff Lane that have been asking for action from the Council for years. Cars often park in the restricted areas and on grass verges on the road, but with limited resources the police and the council have struggled to prevent this.

The bollards will be placed on Ruff Lane

"These bollards should deter inconsiderate parking and allow the council to also reseed the grass on the verges."

Council house ceiling collapsed onto tenant

By Henry James

A RESIDENT living in a council house in Skelmersdale was stood at her kitchen sink after putting her young daughter in bed to nap when her recently plastered ceiling began to crack and fell on her head, just hours after being supposedly 'completed.'

Kirstan Jackson, from Carfield, contacted West Lancs MP Rosie Cooper and she told her that shockingly, this isn't the first time the ceiling had collapsed, as weeks earlier the same thing had happened!

Ms Cooper has slammed the borough council for what she claimed was only the most recent in a long line of serious failings by its housing department.

Ms Cooper has previously called on the council to, "address the consistent issues with their housing improvement programme."

She is now asking West Lancashire

The collapsed ceiling of Kirstan Jackson borough council to take immediate steps to ensure the safety of Ms Jackson and her family in the home and to address the 'poor quality of the council's home improvement programme.'

The MP commented: "It is unbelievable that the awful work completed by the council's contractors has resulted in my constituent's ceiling collapsing - twice!

"It is really lucky that her one-year-old daughter was not in the kitchen, or she could have been injured.

"My constituent, who had simply asked for the council to carry out maintenance to her kitchen that she had been promised, now tells me she feels unsafe in her own home.

"The council must take urgent steps to ensure this work is completed properly and safely, and that there is a drastic improvement to the work that their contractors are doing.

"Sadly, incidents like this appear to be becoming more and more frequent.

"Every week I receive more calls about poorly completed 'home improvements' to council houses.

"I have raised my serious concerns about these matters with the council's chief executive and expect to see a serious increase in quality of work. Residents deserve much better than this."

A spokesperson for the borough council responded: "The council is currently undertaking a full investigation of the ceiling and we are liaising with Ms Jackson to put a resolution in place as quickly as possible."

Jacqui Sinnott-Lacey, WLBC's director of housing and inclusion

Chance to stand as borough councillor at elections

IF anyone has ever thought of becoming a Councillor and standing for election, then they can find out more about the election process at a virtual meeting later this month.

West Lancashire Borough Council and six local Parish Councils are holding elections on May 5 and residents may be able to stand as a candidate in one of the elections if they meet the eligibility criteria.

Councillors have three main roles:

- To represent the people in their local area and listen to their views
- To make decisions about how the council is run, what services should be provided, and how money is spent
- To provide community leadership, such as enabling different organisations to work together to make their area a better place

If people are interested in being a candidate or agent at the upcoming elections and they want to know more about the electoral process, a briefing is taking place on Wednesday, March 23 at 5.30pm online via Microsoft Teams.

Jacqui Sinnott-Lacey, returning officer for West Lancashire, said: "Being a Councillor gives you the opportunity to make a real difference to the area you represent. There are no set qualifications or experience required.

"Skills gained through raising a family, volunteering or being active in faith or community groups are just as valuable to being a Councillor as skills gained in employment or training. The event will tell you everything you need to know about the election process, so please join us if you want to find out more."

For more information and to book a place at the briefing, contact the Elections Team via email at elections.office@westlancs.gov.uk or by calling 01695 585013

Carfield burglary and stabbing of teenager in Skelmersdale believed 'to be linked'

A BURGLARY in Carfield, Skelmersdale and the stabbing of a 15-year-old boy are believed to be connected.

Police were called at about 8.15pm on Wednesday (March 9) to a report of a burglary in Carfield.

They were told a number of people had entered the property causing damage before making off.

Officers attended the scene and received a further report a 15-year-old boy had been stabbed. The boy suffered an injury to his lower back and is at hospital for treatment.

A spokesman for Lancashire Police said: "The two incidents are believed to be linked and enquiries are ongoing."

Anyone with information can contact police on 101 quoting log 1207 of March 9.

Fate of housing plan on greenbelt land to be decided by council

Report by Henry James

PLANS to demolish and reuse agricultural buildings at Holly Fold Farm, in Bickerstaffe, to create nine homes and a 'wildlife tower' in the green belt site will be decided at a Planning Committee meeting tomorrow (March 17).

Councillor Ian Rigby has asked the scheme be referred to Committee, "to consider the impact on the greenbelt and the isolated nature of the site."

The site can be found to the east of Rainford Road (A570).

The application proposes the demolition of several buildings and other structures within the site.

The remaining buildings along with extensions to those buildings are proposed to be converted to residential use.

The development would create nine dwellings set around the existing courtyard area. Parking, bin/cycle stores and front garden areas would be provided within the courtyard with back gardens also provided for each property.

Letters of representation have been received by the council with people concerned about the increase in traffic at the junction with the Rainford bypass.

Heidi McDougall, the corporate director of place and community at West Lancashire Borough Council, believes the principle of the proposed development in the green belt is considered to be acceptable. The plans are being recommended to be approved with conditions.

She writes in planning documents for the meeting: "The proposal is not considered to have any significant adverse impacts on highway safety, neighbouring amenity, drainage, ecology habitat or protected species."

Single lane plan for Derby Street bridge edges closer despite strong opposition

Report by Henry James

LANCASHIRE County Council's decision to press ahead and submit plans to the borough council to reduce the two-lane Derby Street bridge in Ormskirk to one lane without carrying out a "formal trial" have been slammed by the political group, Our West Lancashire, who fear it could lead to 'gridlock'.

It has been greeted with dismay and anger by Our West Lancashire, who have consistently called for a formal trial of single lane operation before "permanent and irreversible changes" are made to the bridge.

In response, the county council said they carried out a "traffic management" exercise last year and found that "traffic flowed freely."

Councillor Ian Davis, whose ward includes the railway bridge said: "Not to carry out a formal trial before making this permanent change is negligent."

"The County Council are relying on computer modelling and not listening to people who drive these roads on a daily basis."

"They have still not provided any evidence that they have consulted with North West Ambulance Service whose ambulances risk significant delays in reaching Ormskirk Hospital whilst carrying children with serious health conditions."

Our West Lancashire say they have a petition that has been backed by 1,500 residents against the plan.

Lancashire County Council has said the existing highway layout will be replaced with a single traffic lane and wider footways over the bridge.

The authority state in a Design and Access Statement for the application that the revised layout will provide "a much-improved environment for pedestrians and increase safety for all road users."

A spokesperson for the County Council said: "We had traffic management on the bridge at the end of last year, which reduced it to one lane including during peak times, as part of our preparations for the maintenance scheme."

"While this only offered a snapshot of conditions at any one time, we were pleased to see that traffic flowed freely, supporting the predictions made by our previous traffic modelling."

"The reason we are proposing to change the way traffic runs over Derby Street Bridge, is to allow us to widen the footways to increase safety for pedestrians, and also reduce the risk of a vehicle colliding with the bridge and endangering the railway beneath."

'Slap on wrist' for shop that sold booze to children slammed

Report by Henry James

A DECISION to allow Ormskirk Superstore on Aughton Street to continue trading, despite being found to repeatedly sell age-restricted products to children as young as 14, has angered a borough councillor.

Ormskirk's Knowsley Ward Cllr Gareth Dowling said: "I put a lot of time and effort in to responding to residents' concerns about this blatant selling to those under age and the shop's clear disregard and lack of remorse when repeatedly warned about their behaviour.

"At the hearing, the sheer number of breaches were outlined by the Trading Standards officer, to which the shop owner had no response other than to blame his staff, and to point to the fact that 'the girl didn't look 14', despite there being a Check 25 requirement.

"For me, this showed a clear lack of understanding for the most basic of principles in protecting our young people.

"Sam McConnell from Trading Standards made clear in his report that the committee were encouraged to consider revocation of the relevant premises licence.

"At the hearing, I called on the three-member committee to at the very least consider stopping the shop from selling age-restricted products, given their disastrous track record.

"I was shocked and appalled by the committee's decision to give the shop a simple 'slap on the wrist' in advising that the shop undertakes training – surely this is something that should have been done when they first opened, or during the nearly nine months of visits and breaches?

"I have already requested from the borough solicitor what avenue of appeal there is as this decision is plain wrong and does nothing to protect the residents or the young people of West Lancashire. Sadly, the committee has given the green light to traders to do whatever they well like.

Cllr Dowling outside the Ormskirk Superstore

"The council had an opportunity to show its teeth here, even a temporary suspension or revocation could have been handed down to reflect the seriousness of the incidents and send a clear message, but the committee has chosen not to do anything of actual note."

A spokesperson for the borough council said: "The Sub-Committee's decisions were made in accordance with the Licensing Act 2003 which only controls the sale of alcohol, not the sale of tobacco/tobacco related products.

"The power to stop the shop from selling tobacco lies with Lancashire County Council Trading Standards Service and their enquiries were continuing.

"The Sub-Committee fully took into account the evidence presented to it from the Premises Licence Holder, LCC Trading Standards and Ward Councillor, Gareth Dowling when making its decision."

Up Holland couple conned out of £600 by fake fence painters

Report by Henry James

A COUPLE in Up Holland were conned out of £600 by two men offering to paint their fencing.

Police were called to attend an address on Chequer Lane, following reports of two males in their mid to late twenties approaching addresses offering to paint fencing.

On March 2, one couple were quoted £60 for the work to be completed, however when the two males returned to collect their money they demanded £600, which they were given as the resident felt threatened.

PC Ashdown from Skelmersdale Police said: "The two males arrived in a white Ford Transit type van and are described as white males approximately six feet tall with dark hair and stubble. They are described as talking with northern accents.

Chequer Lane in Up Holland

"To other residents, please remember to keep your house secure and if you are unsure of the credibility of anyone attending your address ask them for identification or a number to contact to verify their identity."

If you have any information that could assist with this investigation call 101 (log number 651 of March 2).

Crem's metal recycling scheme raises £3,000 for Lifeboat Station

Report by Henry James

WEST Lancashire Crematorium made a £3,000 donation to the local Southport Lifeboat in aid of the essential lifesaving work they provide.

Southport Lifeboat is run by the Southport Offshore Rescue Trust, who provide rescue services around the Sefton coastline and rely entirely on donations and fund-raising.

The money was raised from West Lancashire Crematorium's metal recycling scheme. With the consent of families, metals recovered during cremation are recycled and any money raised from this is used to support charities and other worthy causes in the communities surrounding every crematorium and cemetery which are part of Westerleigh Group.

Laura Linnane, site manager at West Lancashire

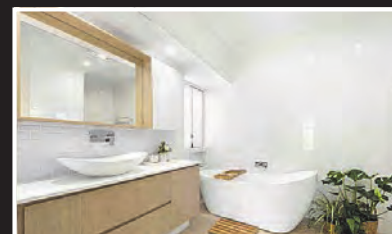

A cheque is handed over to Southport Lifeboat

Crematorium, said: "I wanted to donate to the Lifeboat as they are purely volunteers and provide an incredible service, helping to rescue more than 400 casualties, both human and animal, since they were formed.

"Our donation will enable them to purchase things such as life-saving equipment and will go towards the new lifeboat station."

Merseyrail named 'best performing regional rail operator' for fourth time

Report by Henry James

MERSEYRAIL has been crowned the Best Performing Regional Rail Operator for the fourth year running at this year's Golden Whistle Awards.

Merseyrail was given the accolade at an awards ceremony in London, which was organised by Modern Railways and the Chartered Institution of Railway Operators. The awards are based on operational performance statistics.

Zoe Hands, chief operating officer at Merseyrail, said: "To win this award for a fourth consecutive year is not only testament to a fantastic team who deliver the best train service in Britain, it's a real point of pride for our part of the country."

"We are relentlessly focused on keeping the Liverpool City Region number one as we realise fantastic public transport is an essential component of a vibrant and successful local economy and connected community."

Merseyrail staff with their Golden Whistle award

"Like any good operator, however, we don't do this alone. We rely on brilliant service partners at Network Rail, Merseytravel, Stadler, British Transport Police, and Carlisle to name a few."

"Without their input and dedication we wouldn't be number one for punctuality so this award is really shared by all those who help us stay on the leading edge of passenger rail transport."

Hospital rules are in place to keep patients and staff safe from Covid

I don't often respond to what I read in print, but on reading the recent letter about 'hospital dictators' during the pandemic, I was really taken aback by such horrible remarks.

I am sorry to hear that the letter writer had to spend time in hospital which isn't nice for anyone, and not being able to see your family doesn't help the situation.

Covid hasn't gone away and all the rules set by our local NHS Trust are there to keep patients safe. It goes without saying that with a steady stream of visitors in and out of the wards, it is a strong possibility that a percentage of them would be infected with covid.

If you are a patient, you are even more at risk because of being so vulnerable.

It is not difficult to understand the reasoning behind these difficult decisions that have to be made.

In certain situations such as when a patient is at the end of life or suffering with dementia, or you have babies or small children on the ward who need their parents, it is important that allowances can and are made.

Please, just think about all the staff that take great care of you when you are in hospital. They aren't super humans and are just as capable of catching this horrible virus as the rest of us - they have to be protected also.

Maureen Blackwell,
Southport

Our hardworking NHS staff need praise not criticism

With reference to MP Rosie Coper's remarks on the NHS. Does she not realise we have had an epidemic that has last two years when the hospitals were overrun with virus cases and all the NHS staff were overworked, many of them until they were ill themselves.

Not only that, but there have been many refugees from many parts of the world and there will be many more now thanks to Putin and his invasion of Ukraine.

Many of these people have needed and will need the health service.

For an MP she does not appear to know much about what is happening in her own country.

My advice to Rosie is to wake up, listen to the news and the comments in Parliament.

The NHS needs more nurses and doctors, yes.

But they also need praise for their work and dedication, not criticism.

God bless our NHS.

Mr JD Hogg,
Blind Army veteran,
Southport

Government's response to Ukraine refugee crisis is shameful

I have watched what is happening in Ukraine with a mixture of horror and shame.

Horror at what destruction one power-hungry person can inflict upon a nation of 40 million people within Europe and shame at our government's response to such enormous human suffering.

Poland is trying to deal with numbers of desperate people rising towards one million.

We have so far given UK visas to so few - despite having been aware of the problem for several weeks.

This is despite our Home Secretary, Priti Patel, assuring everyone that she is removing many of the obstacles in Home Office procedures.

I have also just finished listening to a Foreign Office official trying to persuade us that everything that can be done, is being done.

His argument is that we have urgent meetings set up with our European neighbours to sort things out and that we have to be sure all the relevant safeguarding issues are satisfied. Reassuring stuff!

I'm afraid this government's attitude to this disaster seems to be 'we will do all the talking we possibly can but please don't touch our bank account.'

Lack of moral leadership seems to prevail in so many areas.

I feel sure that if 1,000 Ukrainian refugees arrived tomorrow in Southport, ordinary people would come forward to help and sponsor families.

I think the gulf between our people and our government is absurdly apparent.

My faith in human nature is thankfully being restored by the already wonderful response from people in this area through donations of clothing, sanitary and other supplies and cash giving.

Thank goodness the people of this country are responding where our government plainly isn't.

Tony Young,
Birkdale

Hit big profit energy firms with windfall tax

I see the snake oil salesmen of the fracking industry are taking advantage of the Ukrainian people's misery to pedal their arguments.

Even if wholesale fracking got the green light it would be at least a decade before such infrastructure would generate any appreciable difference to our energy sector.

If people are really concerned about 'pensioners and young families having to chose between heat and food', could I suggest they join calls for a windfall tax on the obscene profits of the energy sector to be distributed among them.

This would certainly help their predicament a lot quicker than constructing a huge new industrial process in our surrounding countryside.

Waiting to tax the profits of a fully functioning fracking industry to pay for energy efficiency, as he seems to suggest, is bonkers.

Nick Kemp,
Southport

A myth that fracking is answer to our energy crisis

Fracking has long been lauded by those that support it as the panacea for our energy needs.

But the facts simply do not back this up.

They claim it will bring down prices. This is simply untrue; the government and leading figures in the oil and gas industry have said UK gas obtained from high volume hydraulic fracturing will have no impact on the price we pay for gas.

Currently, around 50% of the UK's gas consumption comes from the North Sea.

Yet prices have risen by up to 10 times over the last year. So UK-produced gas has not done anything for our energy bills. So like North Sea gas, fracked gas will be sold on the energy market to the highest bidder.

We will have to suffer with the noise, pollution, almost constant HGV traffic to/from the fracking site and all the other well documented problems associated with this industry with none of the supposed benefits.

So the idea that fracking for gas will lower our energy bills, and will make us self-sufficient is just a myth.

Simon Maxwell,
Southport

Return of concerts will be music to the ears!

Parbold Village Hall to resume events from next month

Report by Henry James

CONCERT-GOERS who have been missing regular performances in Parbold by world-class musicians now have plenty to look forward to, as musicians from around the world begin to resume international travel.

Several performers scheduled to appear in Parbold Village Hall have recently had to cancel due to travel restrictions.

However, from next month the concert season picks up where it left off, with two special events for film and music lovers of all ages.

At 3pm on Saturday, April 2, one of the world's best known silent film pianists, Neil Brand, will present short comedies made between 1903 and 1929.

At 7.45pm on Saturday, April 2, Neil will give screenings of Charlie Chaplin's The Immigrant and Buster Keaton's masterpiece The General.

Both events will feature the acclaimed composer playing along to classic black and white films, talking about silent film comedy and comedians, and the unique skill of live film accompaniment.

The events were first scheduled for the 2020/21 season.

Tickets for each event are £5 for young people and students, and adult tickets are £12 for the afternoon event and £16 for the evening.

Following Neil Brand's performances, concert-goers will be able to attend four more concerts:

- The Carducci String Quartet (Saturday, April 23) performing Beethoven and Dvorak;
- Spanish pianist Javier Perianes (Saturday, May 14), playing Spanish classics including Albeniz's well-known masterpiece Iberia;
- Alina Ibragimova (Saturday, June 4), performing dazzling virtuosic pieces for solo violin;
- Nelson Goerner (Saturday, June 11) who closes

Neil Brand

the season with some of the most technically demanding works written for the piano.

The events take place at Parbold Village Hall where Douglas Music Parbold presents an annual series of concerts featuring world class musicians each year.

Tickets for each event are £5 for young people and students, and adult tickets are £20 for the evening events.

Tickets can be booked by visiting the website www.parbolddouglasmusic.org, emailing tickets@parbolddouglasmusic.org or phoning 01257 498452.

Skem's promotion hopes dented after Charnock defeat

Skelmersdale United 1
Charnock Richard 2

SKELMERSDALE United's promotion hopes were dealt a blow on Saturday after they were beaten by Charnock Richard, writes Andy Forsyth.

The home side started well and were in front after ten minutes when Elliot Morris played a cross in to Mikey Howard, who slotted the ball past the Charnock Richard goalkeeper Callum Jakovlevs.

The away side started to get into the game shortly after United went ahead, and were rewarded in the 18th minute when Carl Grimshaw got on the end of a corner to make it 1-1.

Skem had chances to restore their lead with opportunities falling to Howard and Morris but unfortunately couldn't get beyond Callum Jakovlevs in the Greens' goal.

The first half was end to end with both sides battling hard, but it was the visitors who took the lead after 37 minutes when a mix-up between the Blues' defence and goalie Ben Barnes resulted in Harry Scarborough making it 1-2.

The second half was equally tense, with both sides looking to make a good start, and at times the game became feisty with a few firm tackles being made.

Skem almost got their equaliser in the 80th minute when substitute Emini Adegbenro played in Morris but he was unable to convert. At the other end, United had Ben Barnes to thank for keeping the score at 1-2 with a smart save that kept Scarborough out.

The misery was complete for Skem in the dying minutes when Morris was sent off for two yellow cards.

On an afternoon that saw Kenny Strickland make his 350th club appearance, Skem will be feeling frustrated that they were unable to get a victory that would have kept their promotion hopes in their hands. As it is, they are now relying on other results to go in their favour.

Strickland makes 350th appearance for hometown club

LONG-serving Skelmersdale United star Kenny Strickland made his 350th appearance for his hometown club on Saturday.

Strickland joined United in 2009 after he was released by Chelsea, where he had been on a full-time contract.

This was after he spent a spell at Manchester United.

Former Skem manager Tommy Lawson quickly snapped him up and Strickland went on to be crucial part of the side that ran away with the NPL First Division title in 2012/13.

He joined Marine in 2016 and played a part in the famous FA Cup tie last year against Tottenham.

Paul McNally persuaded him to return to Skem in 2020 and he was been a permanent name on the club team sheet ever since.

He started out as a creative midfielder player and developed into a dependable defender, who was known for setting up attacks from the back.

Strickland also has a reputation for a thunderous free-kick and has turned many games for Skelmersdale from set pieces.

Linnets earn win in last home game of season

Burscough 1
Runcorn Town 0

BURSCOUGH have almost certainly tied down a sixth place finish in the North West Counties Premier Division thanks to Saturday's victory at the Community Ground, which was their last home game of the season.

The Linnets secured all three points thanks to a ninth minute goal by promising youngster Nathan Salisbury, the result leaving Runcorn condemned to finishing in the bottom two places in the division.

Burscough now face three away games to complete their season, beginning with a trip to Cheshire on Saturday, where they take on Northwich Victoria, who now play their home games at Witton Albion's Wincham Park.

From Little Acorns

An Early Education and Childcare Provision Feature

Whether your child attends a nursery, school or any other early years provider is, of course, your decision but there is no doubt that by working closely with the government most, if not all, of these providers now offer a close as possible safe environment for you to send your children to.

Scientific evidence ( Source GOV UK ) shows that coronavirus presents a much lower risk to children than adults, there will of course still be risks, but early education providers have put in place a range of protective measures to help reduce the risks.

They will do their own health and safety risks, understand that some children may experience anxiety and have measures in place to help, and of course will be in regular contact with their local health protection teams if there is a local outbreak. For any extra curricular activities such as breakfast clubs and after-school activities etc, the early education providers will have adapted to ensure protective measures and you can always contact them direct to see what they are doing differently and to find out more information on what changes they have made.

This news will hopefully encourage you to take up a place for your child as attending childcare can help provide a routine as young children develop their social skills. It will also improve their educational progress and well being. This feature aims to highlight and remind parents as to the benefits of placing your child in an early years setting.

What type of services are available?

After school and breakfast clubs

These can be provided by schools or private nurseries and provide care for your child before or after school, or both. Learning is structured and children are always provided with healthy snacks or meals.

Playgroups

Playgroups offer care for your child several times a week usually, for a morning or an afternoon, and work in conjunction with the Early Years Foundation Stage.

They can help your child to interact and start learning at an age where they are too young to go to school.

Private day nurseries

These are open from Monday to Friday and can look after your child between the hours of 7.30am – 6.00pm.

They are available for children aged 3 months to five years of age and although they are private, there are several Government schemes to help you meet the cost if you feel you are struggling. All are means tested and funding could be one call away.

These nurseries are OFSTED inspected and follow the Government's Early Years Foundation Stage structure of learning.

Holiday Play schemes

Children have a lot more time off school than parents have off work and so for those times holiday play schemes can come in very handy.

They offer childcare only in school holidays and can help the child develop and learn while making sure they are safe and well cared for. > PTO

Benefits for your child ...

High quality childcare and early education give your child a head start in primary school, as research shows that it improves their educational, emotional and social development.

Children with experience of high quality childcare and early education do better in Key Stage 1 and Mathematics at age 7.

Children who attend a good quality setting are more likely to be more independent, better able to concentrate and more sociable at the start of primary school. The benefits of part-time attendance are those of full-time attendance.

“Ormskirk West End has given our children the best start to their education and they have all they need to thrive. They love it here! Parent Survey, Oct '21”

I can't believe how well my son speaks now. I was worried about his vocabulary but after joining the nursery he chats and chats all day.

The staff are so easy to talk to. They are very approachable. I can talk to them about any worry I have. Nothing is too much trouble.

My daughter loves spending time in the nursery. She looks forward to going every day. She has made so many good friends.

Which childcare is best for you?

With so many parents both working full time these days the issue of childcare is a major one

There are several options available but choosing the right one for your family can sometimes be a difficult task. Before you make a decision...

- Give yourself plenty of time to choose. Holiday play schemes and other seasonal childcare service can booked up well in advance.
- Make appointments to visit two or three providers to compare what's on offer. This will allow you to look at the services available and chat to the staff.
- Always consider your child in your decision, even if they are far too young to make a choice themselves. Where do you think they would prefer?
- Ask other parents for their suggestions and recommendations.
- Check opening times, holiday dates and, most importantly, costs.

Questions to ask childcare providers

DirectGov recommends you ask the following questions:

- Safety – what happens in an emergency?
- Are the premises secure (can strangers get in)?
- What training and experience do the carers have?
- How does the provider report safety incidents to parents?
- Do the carers know first aid?
- What is the staff 's view on discipline?
- What activities are on offer?
- What happens if you are late picking up your child?
- What food is provided and is it healthy?
- Who can you talk to about your child's progress?
- What happens if your child becomes ill?

Champion MOTORS

Ford goes electric – and it's no joke

The Mustang Mach-E is currently the only all-electric car Ford sells in the UK

TOP bit of car-based trivia for you. Tesla's boss deliberately called his models the S, the 3, the X and the Y because they spell out SEXY – or rather, they do if you're the sort of motoring enthusiast who still thinks it's funny to type 55378008 into a calculator and turn it upside down.

Poor old Elon missed out on the chance to make the gag a bit more obvious because Ford still owned the rights to cars called Model E – and now it's finally decided to do something a bit more useful with it than ruining other people's jokes. Ford Model e – and yes, it's emphatically a lower-case 'e' in Blue Oval exec-speak – is now a trendy new sub-brand, with the aim to sell 600,000 zero-emissions cars across Europe in just four years' time.

The plan's a bold one; it's planning to launch not one, not two, but seven all-electric vehicles within the next two years, three of which are commercial vehicles, including a leaner, greener take on the Transit Custom. In the meantime, there's a new electric version of the Transit – which, let's not forget, is currently the nation's best-selling vehicle – about to hit the showrooms, and further down the line there's going to be a version of the Puma that you can plug into the mains. I'm sure I'm not the only car nut wondering what kept them – last year was the first time in more than 30 years that it didn't make the nation's best-selling new car, with electric car sales helping Vauxhall's Corsa to bag the top spot. Ford, which at the moment can only sell you a Mustang Mach-E if you want something all-electric, hasn't so much missed the boat as forgotten to book a ferry ticket in the first place. Whoops.

It's great to see Uncle Henry making up for lost time, but the really interesting bit was something it didn't announce at all – in fact,

SUZUKI'S launched a new hybrid version of its Vitara, which is available to order now. Unlike the existing model, which uses a 'mild' hybrid system designed to make the petrol engine more efficient, this new version, called the Full Hybrid, uses a bigger battery and allows the five-door crossover to be driven in electric-only mode. Prices start at £25,499 for the entry-level SZ-T model, although it's also available with four-wheel-drive if you go for the plusher SZ5 version.

The new Mazda CX-60 arrives here later this year

LIFE ON CARS

with DAVID SIMISTER

www.lifeoncars.co.uk

it let another carmaking giant do the honours. One of the seven new models, an all-electric crossover, is going to be based not on Ford bits but Volkswagen's MEB platform. In other words, Ford's next new model is going to have an awful lot of VW ID4 in it.

Ford and VW teaming up is nothing new, as anyone who's ever owned a mid-Nineties Sharan will testify, but I reckon this time around the two takes will be sufficiently different that it's unlikely they'll steal sales from one another. The real winner, however, is the planet – two carmaking giants teaming up on green tech means that they're not wasting resources doubling up on the same task, and it'll help both companies to achieve their wider goal of doing things carbon neutrally an awful lot quicker.

All of which means it'll filter down to the fun models too, so in the not-too-distant future you'll be able to enjoy an all-electric Golf GTI or zero emissions Focus RS with a slightly bigger smile on your face. In the long run car nuts will have the last laugh – which I suspect is more of a laugh than the one provided by Tesla's model names...

David Simister is the editor of Classic Car Weekly

The new hybrid tech is being rolled out across the whole Suzuki range

MAZDA'S new CX-60 is available to order now, with the first examples due to arrive here in the autumn. Prices for the five-door crossover, which is equipped with a 2.5-litre petrol engine teamed up with a plug-in hybrid battery system, start at £43,950, rising to £48,050 for the range-topping Takumi version. Go to www.mazda.co.uk or pop into your nearest dealer to find out more.

FREE MOT TEST FOR LIFE

There is no other car dealer in the UK that will allow you to swap your existing car for another one and give you a FREE MOT TEST FOR LIFE!

Well, Chapelhouse are doing exactly that with every New or Used car purchased throughout their Car Swap Event.

Chapelhouse will carry out a Free MOT test each year for the life of the car and even if you sell the vehicle we can transfer this over to the new owner. Bargain!

This great opportunity can save you up to £1000 over the life time of the vehicle you purchased from us.

"I swapped my old C1 for a new Suzuki Swift with loads of extras and it only cost me £500 and with FREE MOT for life." Paula Taylor

Get down to Chapelhouse and take advantage of not only a newer vehicle with FREE MOT TESTS FOR LIFE, it really is that simple!

"We swapped our Vauxhall Corsa for a much newer KIA Rio and it's hard to believe it only cost us £645." The Parsonage Family

HOW IT WORKS...

1. We closed early on the 17th March in order to prepare for The Chapelhouse Car Swap ten day event.
2. We fully prepared over 1000 new, nearly new and used vehicles and line them up for you to browse around.
3. The price of every car is reduced and PRICED TO SELL!
4. The Car Swap price is on every car windscreen.
5. You will be able to see the saving from the original price which will still be on the car.
6. When you arrive and after making your choice of tea, coffee or hot chocolate your car will be valued.
7. You will be given a written valuation on a signed form stating how much we will give you for your car.
8. Pick the car you most desire and either do a straight swap depending on the valuation of your car or pay the difference.
9. Once you have decided on a swap, simply take your valuation form to any one of the Chapelhouse Car Sales Executives who will complete the necessary documentation. You will also be able to take advantage of special finance packages during the event, including interest free credit.

Don't miss this Special Event at Chapelhouse

Trading in your tired old wheels for a more exciting model becomes easier and cheaper than ever.

Here at Chapelhouse, we love giving our customers great deals, so if you are looking to change your car, we are offering a simple, catch free way to do so, without leaving you out of pocket.

Our Car Swap event runs right across the Chapelhouse group, meaning you have a range of over 1000 new, nearly new and quality used vehicles to choose from.

Many of our cars also come with a host of added extras as standard, including our fantastic 'FREE MOT TEST FOR LIFE' offer.

The process is simple, just take your car down to Chapelhouse, and enjoy a hot drink on us, while one of our friendly salesmen works out price we can give you for your car.

Once we've worked this out, you can take a look around the site and pick the car you'd like to take home.

Each car will be reduced and priced to sell, so simply deduct the price of your car from the price of your new car, and that's all you have to pay.

That means there's every chance you will walk away with a new car for nothing!

No other dealer can boast an offer this good, so make sure you take a trip down to Chapelhouse during this Car Swap event and get yourself a new car from as little as £0!
